Saint Students Return

From Our Principal

24 days till Christmas

Advent is here!!!

There is an old Greek proverb: "Well begun is half done."

The Church's calendar begins on the first Sunday of Advent, which means we're starting a whole new Church year, and we're also starting to get ready for the feast of Christmas. A good beginning to both could go a long way toward a good Christmas and a good year. Christmas seems a bit distant right now, but within a week or so it'll seem just around the corner. And things will become busy, even hectic.

Advent is meant to help us keep our perspective. The point is to focus on what is important so that we can enjoy the feast of Christmas even more. Advent is not meant to take the fun out of this season. It's a wonderful time of year, one that is dear to us, rich in memories and customs, with sights, sounds, smells all around, that gladden one's spirit.

Something I found on social media and thought you would enjoy:

Holiday Bucket List

1. Buy presents – how about: Be Present.
2. Wrap gifts – how about: Wrap someone in a hug.
3. Send gifts – how about: Send love.
4. Shop for food – how about: Donate food.
5. Make cookies – how about: Make memories.
6. See the lights – how about: Be the light.

On behalf of all the staff members and St. Frances Cabrini Catholic School's Board of Trustees, I want to wish you all a very Blessed Christmas 2022 and the most prosperous 2023 yet! We are Blessed to have all our Saint kids and families here at our "Little School with a Big Heart"! GOD BLESS!

Sincerely,

Victor S. Gonzales
